Hello ...

What a way to mark the official First Day of Spring! The decision to close the school yesterday and today was not an easy one, but was definitely the right one! The safety of pupils, parents and staff comes first and as such there was no real choice. I do hope you have enjoyed having some extra time with your children and have managed to get out and enjoy the snow! It has just started snowing again here at home this afternoon—I think another sledging session might be on the cards!

I am expecting that school will be open as usual on Monday. If for any reason it is not, we will of course notify you on the Dorset For You website, our own website and via Parentmail.

Thank you to Sarah Snook for this photo of our school this morning! Where there once was a carpark there is now just a pristine blanket of snow ...

 NEW DATE ... Because of the snow day yesterday we were not able to have our World Book Day. We appreciate the effort parents have gone to with costumes and we know how excited the children were to share their costumes with us so we are going to have our own Wyke World Book Day next FRIDAY 9th MARCH! We look forward to seeing the children's costumes then! Teachers have lots of exciting activities planned for the day and children will bring their £1 book voucher home with them then.

Enjoy the snow! Stay safe and wrap up warm! We would love to see some of your 'snow day fun' photos so do email them to the school office if you would like to share them with us! See you all next week ...
