

Literacy

Using The Tiger Who Came to Tea as our focus text.

Imitating, innovating and inventing our own stories based on the structure of the story.

Writing invitations to ask the tiger to come to tea again.

Cereal box book reviews of the story.

Non-fiction writing about tigers.

SPaG - full stops, capital letters, sentence structure, question marks, exclamation marks, compound words.

Maths

White Rose

Number: Place Value within 50
Calculations: addition, subtraction, multiplication and division
Multiples of 2, 5, 10

Science

Consider plant life cycles.

Labelling the structure of a plant.

Learning about the role of pollen.

Identify and name common trees, garden and wild flowers.

Labelling the structure of a plant.

Understanding that fruit/vegetables are plants and exploring their structure.

Planting potatoes and observing their growth.

The Jungle Robin Class - Summer 1

Phonics

Recap ay, ou, ie, ea, oy, ir, ue, aw, wh, ph, ew, oe, au, ey, a-e, e-e, i-e, o-e, u-e, zh, alternative pronunciation of i and o.

Preparing for phonics screening

Continue cursive handwriting joining all letters and applying

Geography

Finding out about what rainforests are and where in the world they can be found.

Using maps to locate rainforests around the world. Comparing the weather in the UK to the weather in rainforests.

Comparing UK woodland to rainforests.

Computers

Mazes on Purple Mash.

Understanding algorithms and debugging.
Creating real mazes and virtual mazes.

PE

Rising stars - Bootcamp: Understanding how our bodies react to exercise and mastering a range of exercises to aid fitness.

Rising stars - Brilliant Ball Skills: Mastering sending and receiving techniques along with balancing, agility and co-ordination.

Art and Design

Henri Rousseau and his jungle paintings.

Composing our own paintings in the style of Rousseau; building it up in layers.

P.S.H.E.

Jigsaw - Relationships. Friends and family. What makes a good friend? Greetings and making friends.

Music

Charanga - 'Your Imagination' by Joanna Mangona and Pete Readman.